New York, July 29.—The dry goods markets were steady during the day and the slight measure of improvement noted at the beginning of the week was continued. Cotton gray good are slightly higher, and domestics are in stightly better demand. Hosiery and underwear, while selling at very low prices, are being ordered for spring in fair volume. Men's wear lines will be opened to morrow. New lines of ginghams are to be announced to the trade to-morrow.
